If I could catch and hold the way I feel . . . this throbbing bursting pulse of life they call my youth . . . perhaps I might begin to understand that which puzzles me most . . . myself.

I seek that kind of learning that will topple me off my shelf and turn the pages of my mind . . .

I treasure the quiet
... the calm that comes from being alone ...

Yet in this happy confusion of wall-to-wall girls, I see glimpses of myself in those around me . . .

I reach out my hand and offer love . . .

I search . . . I learn . . . I live
 . . . yet the beat goes on.

A Principal . . . Yet a Friend . . .

For almost three years, Sister Patricia has been the principal of Saint Vincent's Academy. During this time she has become more than just the chief administrator of our school. In addition to keeping the school running in a smooth and orderly manner, Sister Patricia has become a friend to all. Being a kind and understanding person, she respects the rights of every individual and tries to be of service to everyone. In the hearts of both students and faculty members, she holds a very special place. Sister Patricia is a principal, yet a friend.

There Are Faces . . .

There are always a few faces that can tell a lot, about the times and the feeling of the times. This was the year Miss Nichols, shown at RIGHT, came to S.V.A. Another new teacher is Mrs. Faust, shown BELOW. To add to the spirit in the halls is a group of newcomers, shown in BOTTOM LEFT picture. The Beatles were right, "There are faces I remember . . ."

Yearbook . . . An Endless

Struggle to Meet the Deadline . . .

RIGHT: Mr. Shorter.

WE THANK YOU
FOR YOUR HELP, FOR WITHOUT IT MANY TIMES THERE WOULD HAVE BEEN TEARS IN-STEAD OF SUNSHINE,
FROWNS INSTEAD OF
LAUGHTER, FAILURE
INSTEAD OF SUCCESS
